To whom it may concern

As the parents of Quinton Manganoff we are not happy with the mistakes that he has made. However we love our child and believe that he is a good man. He was raised by two loving parents in a stable home. But we cannot keep our children shielded from the people and things of the world. And sometimes they don't always make the best decisions.

We are grateful and blessed knowing that his upbringing has made him a man of accountability. He is remorseful and understands that he has hurt not only himself but his children and family are suffering too.

We love him and will support him throughout this journey. We ask for mercy from the Court and pray that this is the new beginning of his transition into an even better man.

Sincerely
Loelle & Melvin Manganoff

Dear Judge. I am writing you to let you know that these last 3 years without my brother Quinton Manigault has been challenging and also here wrecking. Challenging because he's in there while he's missing out on family gathering and time away from his kids who loves him clearly and admires him so much. They look up to him as their very own "Super Hero". On a normal day if he was out into this world he would be taking his kids back and fourth to school, helping with homework and also other things like helping his elderly neighbors do things around their yards. Or bouncing from one aunt to the next seeing "what's for Dinner"? What i'm trying to say is that he is an "All Around" loving / caring person that everyone loves clearly / misses like crazy out here and we can't wait for him to come home. Thanks for taking the time to read this!

Sincerely, Mike Manigault Jr.

To Whom it may Concern,

I'm writing this letter to express how much, my Brother Quinton's Absent's mean to me. Quinton and I have always been close, He's kind of like the yang to my ying. Quinton has always been the kind of person that has made friend of all kind. Unfortunately these friends have cost him a bad choice. We as people in life all make mistakes some we pay for some we don't.

I miss Quinton on a daily, He would make it his business, no matter where I lived to come and see me and my son, now I have a 7mth old he's never seen. I apologize to any and all, that's involved in this case, May God Bless you all, as you make your final decision. Remember that we all require different need's, we as a family need's Quinton, I love my Baby Brother and pray to be alive with all that's going on and see him go free.

Your Honor:

I am writing to urge leniency in the sentencing of my brother Quinton A. Manigault.

I can remember the day my mom brought my brother home from the hospital. I'm well aware of the gravity of the crime he's being convicted of, but it's still hard for me to stomach it. This was the person I grew up with. I'd like to give you a perspective that will shine some light on who Quinton Manigault is.

Quinton has always been there for me, always willing to assist me with my children. I've had many days when I didn't think I'd be able to juggle work, <sup>2k</sup> school, and my children. I honestly don't think I would of been able to finish my bachelors degree if he didn't lend me a hand,

Quinton would assist me with watching my children so I would be able to provide for them. He attended football games, Swim meets in my absence.

Quinton would even go to meetings when I wasn't able to he would stand in my absence I assure you although it seems hard to believe or understand Quinton is a well rounded good person.

I hope the Court take this letter into consideration at the time of Quinton Manigault sentencing. Despite the current case, I truly believe my brother Quinton Manigault is a good person with a heart of gold.

Sincerely,
Dorisheuna Evans

Hello my name is Quineyah Blahe daughter of Quinton Manigault. My dad has been in jail for 3 years and 7 months, 3 years and 7 months. I haven't got to hug my dad. I'm 14 years old, I need my father. I hate to see that my father is in jail. My friends in school always talks about how their dad is taking them out on weekends and how their dad buying them new shoes & clothes.

I miss my dad so much. I miss the day when we would lay on the couch and cuddle til we both fall asleep. I miss the days when we would just <sup>ride</sup> around and stop by stores and go shopping. I think everynight on how I can't just get up and call my dad. I just hope one day I could see my dad happy again. I want everything to go back to normal. I've been so sad ever since I heard from my mother that my dad was in jail. I'm in high school now and I can't go another year without hugging, cuddling or even seeing my dad.

Hi your honer:

My Name is Kaydence

I'm 6 yrs old

all I want for christmas is for my uncle to come home.

I miss him so much.
can you please

send him home to me. Love

kyky

To whom it may concern:

I've been knowing Quinton for the past 17 yrs. Quinton is practically my brother. He's the uncle to both of my children. Quinton is a good person.

He likes to joke and play around. I even made a nickname for him (blackens) lol! I haven't seen my brother in 3 yrs beside video calls. It saddens me because I had my son in 2018 and my son doesn't know his uncle. He's missing out on important milestones in my children's lives. My daughter is 16 yrs old, and she's graduating this year! Her uncle won't be there to cheer her on. Our family is closely knitted together and it hurts he's missing family functions and holidays and just day to day interaction. My brother is a good dude and a hard worker! He's also missing out on my nieces/nephew lives! They need their father! It's enough kids growing up w/o both parents. Don't make it so that his kids have to do the same.

To whom it may concern:

I have known Quinton McMigault for 10 years. I relocated to the South and he was one of the first people that I met. He is ~~a~~ very helpful and considerate friend. When I didn't have a car he drove me and my children around to run errands and helped me around my house with odds and ends. He helped make my early transition very easy. I appreciate him as a friend and hope that his good deeds afford him the leniency of the court.
